

1. Please list some symptoms you see in Charlie Brown that might indicate depression. Be specific. Charlie Brown has an inability to see his good qualities. He is cynical or hunched. Melancholy in mood. He thinks about being worthless. He is always assuming the worst.

2. What are some items in his personality that might make him rise out of depression. He is courageous and caring. Always trying to do right. persistent.

3. What are some ways you might advise Charlie Brown to feel better about life? Don't take what people say too literally. Weigh what people say to him against reality so he knows if they actually love weight.

4. What behavioral techniques would help him feel better? Stand straight and try to laugh things off. he should get Snoopy to hold the football so he can see how good it is.